

University and College Union

Fighting Redundancies:

The Cardiff Story

In January this year, Cardiff University announced plans to make 400 members of staff redundant.

In May the institution announced that there would be no compulsory redundancies in 2025.

As we fight to save jobs at Liverpool Hope, what can we learn from the ongoing struggle at Cardiff University?

Q and A with Joey Whitfield, President of Cardiff University UCU

3pm Wednesday 21 May

FML 200 and via the branch zoom

